

Your health plan's almost ready. Are you?

Here's a handy checklist to help you out.

With a little prep today, you'll be ready to use your plan as soon as it begins.

☐ Access your digital health plan ID card

It's available whenever you need it on the UnitedHealthcare® app and at myuhc.com® — and you can show it at your doctor's office, clinic or anywhere benefits information needs to be shared. Add it to your smartphone's digital wallet for a secure way to store and access details about your plan.

☐ Explore the UnitedHealthcare app

You'll see a variety of things you can do at your own pace as you transition into your new plan, which may include:

- Search for network providers
- Set up notification and communication preferences
- Access on-demand, virtual assistance through the chat feature
- Start Transition of Care for ongoing treatment, if eligible
- Manage your medications, if you have prescription drug coverage

☐ Choose a network PCP

Even if your plan doesn't require you to select a network primary care provider (PCP),* it can be helpful to have one — as they understand your health needs and goals well. To find one, sign in on the UnitedHealthcare app or myuhc.com and select Find Care.

☐ Make an appointment

Preventive care, such as annual wellness exams, certain recommended screenings and routine immunizations, is covered by most plans at no additional cost when you see network providers. It's a good idea to get your first checkup on the calendar — just make sure it's after your new plan's start date. For more info, visit uhc.com/preventivecare.
